

There Is A Fountain [2 G]

[TORC Arrangement] by William Cowper and Lowell Mason

Intro

Am G/B C G/B
Am G/B C

Verse 1

G C/G G
There is a fountain filled with blood
G D/F#
Drawn from Immanuel's veins
Em C
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Em D C
Lose all their guilty stains
G Am
Lose all their guilty stains
Em D
Lose all their guilty stains
G/B C
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Em D C Am G/B C
Lose all their guilty stains

Verse 2

G C/G G
The dying thief rejoiced to see
G D/F#
That fountain in his day
Em C
And there may I though vile as he
Em D C
Wash all my sins away
G Am
Wash all my sins away
Em D
Wash all my sins away
G/B C
And there may I though vile as he
Em D C Am G/B C
Wash all my sins away

Verse 4

G C/G G
E'er since by faith I saw the stream
G D/F#
Thy flowing wounds supply
Em C
Redeeming love has been my theme
Em D C
And shall be till I die
G Am

There Is A Fountain -

And shall be till I die

Em D

And shall be till I die

G/B C

Redeeming love has been my theme

Em D C Am G/B C

And shall be till I die

Am G/B C (D A G B A G B C F)

Verse 5

G C/G G

When this poor lisping stamm'ring tongue

G D/F#

Lies silent in the grave

Em C

Then in a nobler sweeter song

Em D C

I'll sing Thy pow'r to save

G Am

I'll sing Thy pow'r to save

Em D

I'll sing Thy pow'r to save

G/B C

Then in a nobler sweeter song

Em D C

I'll sing Thy pow'r to save