

5 Things That
Will Kill Your Worship Team

1. PRIDE

■ The DANGER:

- Entitlement often accompanies leadership.
- God proactively opposes proud worship teams (James 4:6).

■ The SOLUTION:

- HUMILITY - leading with perspective
- Revelation 4:4-11

2. INCONSISTENCY

■ The DANGER:

■ Our public worship should never exceed our private devotion.

■ Our stage performance should match our life performance.

■ The SOLUTION:

■ CREDIBILITY - leading with integrity

■ Acts 5:1-11

3. INABILITY

■ The DANGER:

- We tend to tolerate mediocre talent since it's "only" church.
- Flashy performance can distract from worship.

■ The SOLUTION:

- CAPABILITY - leading with excellence
- Psalm 33:1-5

4. DETACHMENT

■ The DANGER:

■ Platform ministry can never replace relational ministry.

■ You will have minimal impact if you have minimal influence.

■ The SOLUTION:

■ AVAILABILITY - leading with presence

■ Hebrews 10:24-25

5. DIVISION

■ The DANGER:

- Musicians can tend to be Beta Fish.
- Worship teams often suffer from the “martyr complex.”

■ The SOLUTION:

- UNITY - leading with selflessness
- Philippians 2:1-5

My Steps to Protect

1. I fired my entire team.

2. I raised the expectation bar.

3. I teach on these five principles over & over:

1. HUMILITY - leading with perspective

2. CREDIBILITY - leading with integrity

3. CAPABILITY - leading with excellence

4. AVAILABILITY - leading with presence

5. UNITY - leading with selflessness
